

Judge Dolliver Nelson, International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS), Hamburg, Germany

Dolliver Nelson has been a member of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea since 1996. He has held the following positions: Vice-President 1999-2002, President, 2002-2005 and President, Annex VII Arbitral Tribunal (Guyana/Suriname) 2004-2007.

Since 2000 he has been the Chairman of the Committee on the Outer Continental Shelf, International Law Association. He has also held the following positions at the London School of Economics: Lecturer in Law, 1970-1977 and Visiting Professor in International Law, 1995-2003.

He was formerly Executive Secretary of the United Nations Preparatory Commission for the International Seabed Authority and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea.